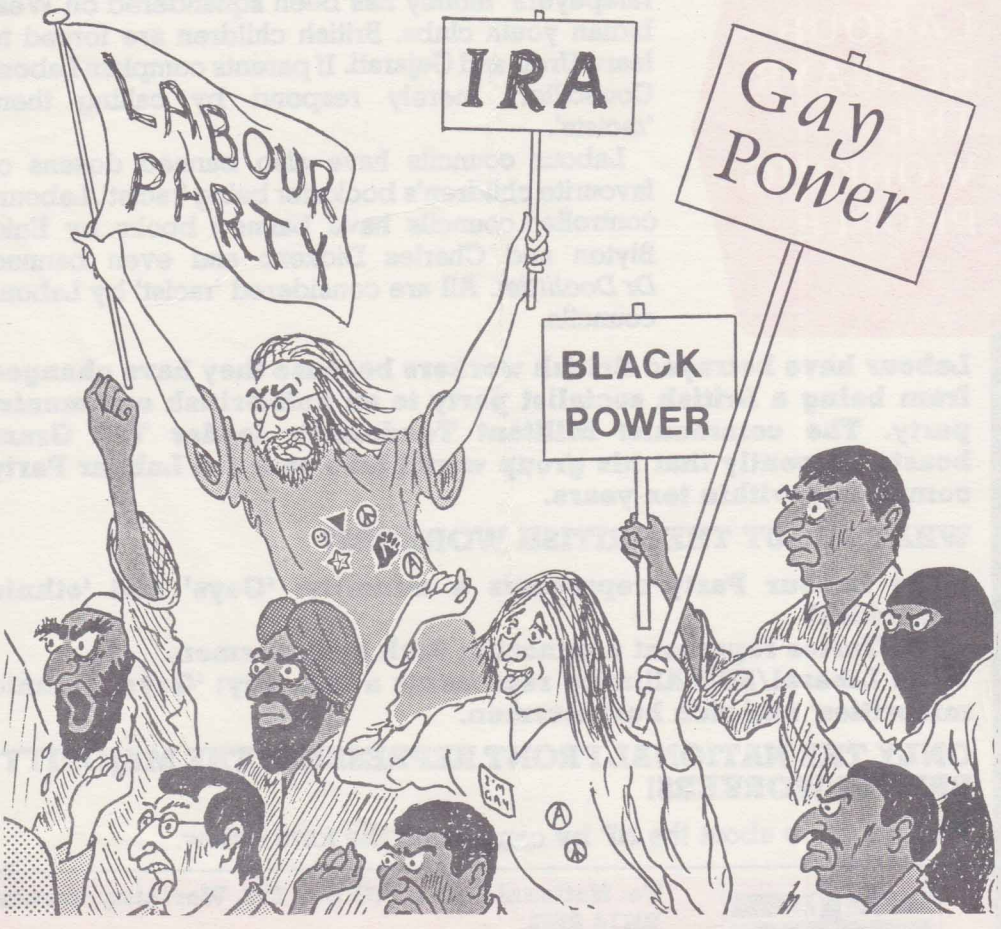
LABOUR BETRAYS BRITISH WORKERS



THE LABOUR PARTY is supposed to look after the interests of British workers. Yet a close look at Labour policies shows that Neil Kinnock's party have turned their backs on the British working people. Instead they put so-called 'minorities' first!

Labour councils up and down the country have squandered millions of pounds of ratepayers' money on aid for 'gays'. They have persecuted people for being 'sexist'. They have even threatened to sack workers if they refuse to work with AIDS carriers. In fact, Labour-controlled Manchester council have even instructed their council employees to 'hug and kiss' carriers.

LABOUR BETRAYS THE WORKING PEOPLE

Labour are even worse than the Tories in grovelling to 'ethnic minorities'. Millions of pounds of ratepayers' money has been squandered on West Indian youth clubs. British children are forced to learn Urdu and Gujarati. If parents complain Labour Councillors merely respond by calling them 'racists'.

Labour councils have also banned dozens of favourite children's books for being 'racist'. Labour-controlled councils have banned books by Enid Blyton and Charles Dickens and even banned *Dr Doolittle*l. All are considered 'racist' by Labour councils.

Labour have betrayed British workers because they have changed from being a British socialist party to an anti-British communist party. The communist Militant Tendency's leader Ted Grant boasted recently that his group would take over the Labour Party completely within ten years.

WHAT ABOUT THE BRITISH WORKERS?

★The Labour Party represents a minority: 'Gays' and 'ethnic minorities'.
★The Tories represent a minority: Rich businessmen.
★The Liberal/SDP Alliance represents a minority: 'Gays', 'ethnic minorities' and rich businessmen.
